

Something is really stinking up the place! Could it be Sinclair's motivation behind its plan to force its local channels to smear John Kerry?

I sincerely hope that the FCC will closely examine what Sinclair is doing to sway this election to protect their "interests" and ensure that Bush retains the white house. Thanks.